Thread: What animal are you ????

Tisha - February 3, 2010, 5:05 pm

Here is a fun test to take to see which animal you are.Ã,Ã

I ended up being a otter.Ã,Ã Dang I was hoping for the Swan.Ã,Ã

Rattlesnake - February 3, 2010, 5:12 pm

Contrary to my user name, I ended up being a Fox!

Willow - February 3, 2010, 7:06 pm

I'm a Wild Cat. No specific species, evidently. Just Wild Cat.

Nearly as good as being a Cool Cat, I suppose.

Phya - February 3, 2010, 7:38 pm

I got Zebra, with Bear and Wolf as my other possibilities. I've always identified with wolves, so I'm inclined to say that I'm a wolf, but Zebras are cool too. I just didn't agree with their assessment of a black and white perspective. The wolf profile seemed to match a lot better.

mikotorocks714 - February 3, 2010, 8:52 pm

I'm a Porcupine. ./

S'okay. That was one of my alternates!

A penguin!

Either that or a Bison or an Owl apparently. Not the most similar of animals.

Edit: The description is pretty spot on though. Always loved words, dabbled with writing and do have a tendency to be my own harshest critic.

Bella - February 3, 2010, 11:38 pm

I'm a Wolf...lol.

QuietGuy - February 3, 2010, 11:51 pm

:laugh4 Hey thats funny, looks like you and your hubby were made for each other. Make him do the test later and see what he is.

My husband was a wolf to. He is such a smart ass when we did the test he grinned at me and said Wolf's eat otters dont they.

I am a otter to. At least I am not alone in being one. I know otters are social creatures LOL

mikotorocks714 - February 4, 2010, 7:59 pm

OK, so I tried different varieties of answers that do fit me besides the answers that gave me my Porcupine answer and well, turns out I'm also a Sheep or a Baboon... LOL.

mark-in-dallas - February 6, 2010, 4:23 pm

It said I'm a damn Cockroach!Ã,Â

Actually, I'm a Penguin too, with Beaver and Bat as might also be's.

So, I guess I'll waddle on over to another thread now.Ã,Â :dash3:

esmeralda - February 6, 2010, 11:38 pm

Hyper - February 6, 2010, 11:57 pm

LOL I'm sorry, beaver is funny though just because of the pun part of it. I wanted to be the swan
LOL

I found out about this site last week when I was watching Dr Phil on TV. Dont ask me why I was watching him I normally hate the pompous ass but I stopped on the channel and the subject caught my attention.

Mark Wrote:Actually, I'm a Penguin too, with Beaver and Bat as might also be's
Dont forget salamander sweetie LOL

So after reading about your animal what do you think. Does any of it resonate with you ? I would say mine was almost 80% on target.

I like reading what everyone's totem is!

I admit that for having just asked a few simple questions, the Wild Cat description was pretty close...

And to think we've paid good money for a Myers-Briggs...all they need to know is that Iza Wild Cat.

MuskCloud - March 20, 2010, 5:45 pm

I love tests like these. I'm a Bear, is anyone else a Bear? Lion as backup and an Otter too. I thought I'd be a Wolf and I'd love to be a Falcon or Hawk, but a Bear's good.

TearsOfJoy - March 20, 2010, 11:12 pm

It said I'm a swan... With horse and deer as alternates. I can resonate with the "you can look, but if you touch I'll bite your finger off" kind of attitude

I love synchronicity. I noticed a mole outside my office today for the first time. Apparently he/she just moved into the neighborhood. My office landlord wasn't nearly as happy to see them, however.

petrucci77 - April 5, 2010, 9:41 pm
