Thread: Can anyone recommend products for me?

DunnMan - April 5, 2015, 12:18 pm

Hey all,

I haven't been on here for about a year. I already have glace, AM, Certo and AV.

Basically I'm looking for something that conveys status, but at the same time is very sexual and gets girls to be more receptive to you and wanting to strike up conversations and IOIs.

But I don't want to overwhelm someone. I tried L2K and that seemed to work pretty well.

And as far as congruency goes, I have many alpha male characteristics, but I can be quiet at times and can be sensitive too...so kind of a combo deal. I feel like I come across as a little intimidating sometimes...

But it's also worth noting that when I used 5 sprays of AM I got very anxious and I am prone to anxiety so I need something that will help alleviate that and still be effective

Do you guys have any products in mind?

Voodoo may be right for you, or SOB perhaps.

SeekingSuccess - April 5, 2015, 7:07 pm

I would go with The Hookup: it is attractive, sexual, social, vip all in one. Makes me initiate a lot more often and makes girls more receptive. Give it a look. For $29 I think it is, can not go wrong

DunnMan - April 5, 2015, 8:13 pm

Cool. Can you guys give me those brands so I can find out more info?

Obv voodoo is from LAL...

Thanks

DunnMan - April 7, 2015, 5:56 am

Ok thanks. I decided to buy the hook up. I'm waiting for it to arrive. Any other ideas?

SeekingSuccess - April 7, 2015, 1:57 pm

Grab some: core by apex, xist, and taboo by pheromone xs

Snoopyace - April 7, 2015, 2:43 pm

Captain has become my daily pheromone because it covers all the bases of status, social and attraction. Might be one you would be interested in just because it is so versatile.

DunnMan - April 7, 2015, 3:42 pm

Thanks guys. It will be nice to play around with mones again now that I'm done with my gold digging ex gf and am now on the hunt again. I'm not trying to find love, I just want to do my own thing and have fun for a while and if it works it works, ya know?

Been there done that. It was fun.

In addition to Captain and The Hookup, I'd suggest Aura of Amity as a great social mone. And Grail of Affection later on to create comfort and imprinting on someone who you're dating and decide to step up to the next level with. Check out Snoopyace's GOA reports!

These serious? Voodoo? how many drops you use? help me because I haven't seen anything significant with voodoo

No, I was typing to see if I could still spell.

Yes, serious. Voodoo is awesome. If you haven't seen anything significant, you haven't lathered it on. Put it behind your ears, down your neck, in the crooks of your elbows, and on your wrists. I'd say 4-8 drops is what's working for the majority of us.

If you have some Androstadienone , throw that on with it.

Hi

You may want to check out the top 5 post here:
<http://pherotruth.com/Thread-Top-5-Pheromones-2014-2015>

Many veterans have weighed in here many give reasons for their top 5 picks.

It seems like one of the most popular picks is Nude Alpha.

I can't believe that you use 5 sprays of AM. Did you know that there is 10 Mcg's per spray of Androstenone in AM. LOL. No wonder you are anxious. Wearing 50 mcg's of Androstenone would be intolerable for me.

But yeah, you can do some light reading. It is only 3 pages long and it is quite informative (

Pheroman - April 8, 2015, 2:37 pm

You already have some fine products, if you want more sexual I would add New Pheromone Additive or DP to Certo or Glace.

I might have to do this.

Certainly nothing to lose. I haven't seen a single Voodoo ghosting report to date.

DunnMan - April 11, 2015, 7:25 pm

Thanks guys. What about highly sexual mones that will basically give you over the top reactions from women?

DunnMan - April 13, 2015, 12:40 am

Anything? I just ordered the b.c.e combo from xs and I hope that will work some magic kimosabe - April 13, 2015, 12:45 am

To the first question: The Hookup from Pheromone Treasures.

Give BCE a run first and see how that works for you. Remember to run each product solo first before running the BCE combo.

RTBoss - April 13, 2015, 5:52 pm

I've run BCE once. Just so happened that I was going to dinner and a basketball game with my sister-in-law (11 years younger than me and cute-as-hell), and it was the first (and last) time she ever made a comment about us looking like we were "together" (she said this in front of her fiance, lol). That was at dinner, then she sat next to me at a basketball game we went to, and she brushed her leg against mine 4-5 times. I had my son with me, as well, and every time we exchanged him back-and-forth, she touched my hand in a way that lingered...and kino is something that never happens with her. Good stuff.

DunnMan - April 19, 2015, 5:09 am

I tried The BCE combo the other night and my date was rubbing my leg underneath the table and rubbing her leg against mine. When we got back to her place we made out for a while and then she invited me to spend the night but she didn't let me fuck or eat her pussy. Instead she let me lick her titties lol. She said the next time we hangout we can fuck

Was this your first date with this person or do you know her well?

No worries, dude - I was just being a smartass, I hope you didn't think I was trying to make fun of you. Believe me, I appreciate anyone who tries to speak/write/type English when it isn't their primary language.

As Americans, we do a poor job of learning other languages, though we are obligated to take classes in school (just not early and long enough). I will be starting my son on as many languages as possible at the youngest age possible, it's that important!

Schrademan - April 19, 2015, 6:24 pm

I'm still pretty new to pheromones, but from what I have read, Titan, Ascend, and Wolf seem to work great for a majority of people when it comes to status 'mones.

Mind me asking what is your doses ? How many drops ?

And is she someone you just met ?

Thank You...
